Overview: MOBILITY FRIENDLY - NO STEPS + PRIVATE GARDEN! This bright renovated ground floor apartment offers easy access (no steps + wheelchair-friendly bathroom) with good sized terrace and its own private garden with views of the pool less than 10 minutes walking to the beach and all amenities in lower West Calahonda - situated halfway between Marbella and Fuengirola. Located in the sought-after green zone area Jardines de Calahonda which offers a beautiful and peaceful living environment close to the beach and shops. There is also an excellent local bar nearby that offers a convenient place for a drink or bite to eat in a lovely sea view setting. Inside, the bright and airy apartment offers an open plan living & dining area with good sized kitchen, two bedrooms with plenty of wardrobe space, and 2 modern renovated bathrooms, one with extra large walk-in shower suitable for wheelchair access, making this property ideal for anyone with mobility issues. There is a large covered terrace with its own private garden (rare), and direct access to the communal swimming pool, which also has disabled access via a shallow ramp with hand rail into the water. Other features include Hoy/Cold Aircon throughout, ADSL internet and multi-language TV including all English channels, storage area with washing machine, and a fully equipped kitchen. All in all, this is an ideal family rental apartment in a highly sought-after location near the beach and all amenities in Calahonda. There is also a local bus stop with direct service to Marbella and Fuengirola (approximately 10 KM to both). The local beaches at Luna Beach and Cabopino port offer a full range of beach activities, facilities, and water sports, and the large commercial beach at Cabopino features very shallow sandy access into the sea - ideal for small children and the elderly. Both beaches also offer dedicated disabled access with trained staff and equipment on-site to assist with disabled access into the sea. Also located close to Cabopino Golf and Club del Sol tennis. A highly recommended holiday location for everyone!
