Overview: Beachfront Apartment in the Private Wing of the 5 Star Hotel Kempinski, Estepona. As soon as you enter the apartment, the elegant and spacious living/dining area opens up with a panoramic window front and a fantastic view. Two more spacious, stylishly furnished bedrooms, also with panoramic windows, two large bathrooms, a guest toilet and a fully equipped kitchen complete the luxurious interior living of 165m². From the 40sqm terrace, which can be accessed from all rooms, you have a breathtaking view of the sea, the gardens with its pool area and the mountains. The immaculately maintained apartment also impresses with its luxurious furnishings: such as marble floors and air conditioning hot/cold in all rooms, various built-in wardrobes, walk-in closet in the master bedroom, whirlpool bathtub in the master bathroom, underfloor heating in all bathrooms, double glazing and Sliding doors, built-in downlights in all rooms, sun awning, door intercom with camera. The private entrance with direct access to the elevator also offers privacy. The underground parking space belonging to the apartment and the basement room also have direct access to the private apartment area. 24 hour security service and video surveillance provide the necessary security. The perfect architectural harmony of the hotel complex, designed by the renowned architect Melvin Villarroel, ensures a spectacular spatial development. The hotel combines luxurious comfort and traditional design. During the implementation, attention was paid to the highest level, such as the heated outdoor pool, the spacious palm garden with its well-kept beds, various restaurants, SPA, sauna, steam bath, heated indoor pool, fitness studio and tennis court. All of these amenities of the hotel are of course available to the owner all year round.
